

XM and other satellite radio providers should be permitted to provide traffic and weather services if they wish -- let broadcast radio stations compete on quality rather than silencing these alternative voices. I urge that the FCC reject petition 04-160 so that I can get information that is really useful to me and others on a daily basis.